FROM THE COROMANDEL COAST TO THE STRAITS
REVISITING OUR TAMIL HERITAGE

From the Coromandel Coast to the Straits - Revisiting Our Tamil Heritage is presented in two parts: part one enumerates the odyssey of pre-modern Tamil diaspora in Southeast Asia while part two offers glimpses of lesser known 19th century pioneers and some of the oldest Tamil families in Singapore. Bringing together collections from around the world and treasured possessions from the community, this virtual exhibition seeks to present an uninterrupted history of Tamils in Singapore. It also includes digital showcases featuring holograms of artefacts in the collections of other museums and institutions.

CHETTI MELAKA OF THE STRAITS - REDISCOVERING PERANAKAN INDIAN COMMUNITIES

The Indian Heritage Centre (IHC) in collaboration with the Association of Peranakan Indians (Chitty Melaka) Singapore in Singapore proudly presents Chetti Melaka of the Straits - Rediscovering Peranakan Indian Communities, the first of IHC's community co-created exhibitions.

The Chetti Melaka (or Chitty Melaka) are descendants of Tamil traders who settled in Melaka during the reign of the Melaka Sultanate (15th- 16th century) and married local women of Malay and Chinese descent. The community speaks a unique combination of Malay, Tamil and Chinese, that has been called Chetti Creole by scholars. They trace their roots to Kampong Chitty in Gajah Serang, Melaka, and it is estimated that there are 5,000 Chettis in Singapore. The online exhibition and educational kit will provide students a valuable and rare view into this community.
